

DADALABADU – Music as a link between the cultures

The Marracash Orchestra from Dresden was touring through Bulgaria between 9th and 16th of October, 2008. On October 10th they also guested in Ruse and presented their show at the Canetti House.

Financially supported by the German embassy in Sofia, they also held a musical workshop followed by a jam session before the concert with 35 students from Ruse's music school. The students showed themselves to be enthusiastic participants. In the beginning, a teacher translated from English into Bulgarian, but very soon music became the actual measure of communication.

The Marracash Orchestra's own music as presented during the evening concert proved to be an unconventional mix of Reggae, Balkan Beats, Psychedelic, Punk and Hip-Hop.
