

HALMA-beneficiary Daniel Goetsch staying in Ruse

Writer Daniel Goetsch from Switzerland was staying in Ruse for the month of July, 2008. During his stay, the author lived at the “Semizovata kashta”, a house that belongs to the city of Ruse. He was supervised by the IECG.

Daniel Goetsch was born in Zürich in 1968. He studied law in Zürich and Toulouse. He is currently living as a freelance writer in Berlin. His first novel “Aspartam” was published in 1999. He also wrote plays for both the stage and radio.

Inspired by his new surroundings, Goetsch took the time in Ruse to intently work on his new novel. He is going on to Prague for the month of August.

As the first “author in residence” of Ruse, Daniel Goetsch was also the first beneficiary of the HALMA network.
