

„Hot European Summer“ in Ruse from 5th to 10th of June, 2009

Supported by the Robert Bosch Foundation, Renovabis, the embassies of Austria, France and Germany as well as the short film festival “filmini”, the IECG presented the “Hot European Summer Festival”, a series of events held at the Canetti House.

On the 5th of June, an exhibition of photographs by Georgi Kehayov of Ruse was opened. Official guests at the Canetti House were the ambassadors of France and Germany and their wives.

On June 6th, a discussion on European values was held in which Prof. Georgi Kapriev, Prof. Vladimir Gradev and Prof. Penka Angelova were participating.

On June 7th, a house party featuring DJ Boshan und DJ Milan from Sofia was organized from 3 p.m. to 11 p.m. at the Canetti House.

The day after, the winners of the short film festival “filmini” which is held every fall in Sofia were shown to the public of Ruse.

The theater group MOMO from Sofia presented its version of Peter Handke’s play “Untertageblues. Ein Stationendrama” on June 9th.

The festival was concluded with a performance by the group “Poets with guitars” on June 10th.