FROM THE MEETING FOR SELECTING A CANDIDATE WHO WOULD RECEIVE THE 'SHARING FUTURE'- RESIDENCE SCHOLARSHIP-RUSE

Today, 15.04.2019, from 11:00 am, a meeting of a three-member committee was held with the purpose of selecting an artistic proposal from the applications received until 31.03.2019, the author of which would receive the „Residence scholarship 2019 - Sharing Future, sponsored by the Danube Rectors' Conference. The committee members were familiar with all applications beforehand.

The committee was comprised of the following members:

Chairperson – Prof. Sc. Dr Penka Angelova
Elena Velikova – Director of Ruse Art Gallery
Sebastian Schäffer - Secretary General of the Danube Rectors' Conference
(through skype)
Viktor Kirilov - Culture manager of the IECS (as protocol officer)

The meeting was held in the Austrian library. Ruse, ploshtad 'Svoboda' 4 and was organised by prof. Angelova.

The applications were discussed in the order of their submission, as follows:

1. Normal Gergely, 19.01.2019
2. Lita Poliakova, 28.01.2019
3. Sebastian Winkler, 13.03.2019
4. Manja Ristic, 27.03.2019
5. Macha Selbach, 27.03.2019
6. Nikolai Petrenko, 28.03.2019
7. Zora Kreuzer, 28.03.2019

After reviewing all artistic proposals the committee reached the following conclusion:

The name of the candidate selected for receiving the Scholarship is Zora Kreuzer, who will be able to, with the financial support from the Danube Rectors' Conference to realize her artistic project in Ruse, Bulgaria.

In the case, in which, the selected candidate is unable to realize her project due to personal reasons, that opportunity would be presented to the next possible candidate, in the order of their project's approval by the committee, which is as follows:

Ms. Manja Ristic
Mr. Sebastian Winkler

Международно дружество "Елиас Канети"
Internationale Elias Canetti Gesellschaft

All concepts outside the rankings were also met with great interest by the jury, and in this regard the International "Elias Canetti" Society has declared its readiness for future collaboration with the authors.

Due to depletion of the agenda the meeting was closed.
